To soundproof building various sealants are a requirement, to prevent the passage of ambient noise. STC ratings are considered depending on the requirement which will allow for comfortable surrounding for the occupants. The sealants are effective and long lasting, and guarantees soundproofing of your buildings for entire life. We have successfully installed acoustic sealants from hospitals to airports.

CAVITY BARRIERS

Lamatherm product is used to seal the opening or gaps between the concrete floor slab and the curtain wall together with other well-recognised fire stopping products as a system. In an event of a fire, this system will prevent fire spread from one floor to another through the openings or gaps between the floor slab and curtain wall.

FLOOR COATING

Epoxy Flooring are commonly used for commercial and industrial flooring. Epoxy coatings are normally applied over concrete floors to provide a high-performance, smooth, and durable surface that can last many years and withstand heavy loads. Many industrial sites, warehouses, and commercial buildings rely on epoxy floors to maintain clean and safe conditions for workers, equipment, and inventory.
